tain changes were made in the fund distribution plan.

The committee advocated that the fund itself by increased materially, and that withdrawals should be made every two months instead of monthly.

Mr. Dabbs said afterward that the conference was "satisfactory," and that President Wilson and Secretary McAdoo had promised to do everything possible toward the relief of the tension in moving crops.

Secretary McAdoo explained, according to Mr. Dabbs, that the extension of the withdrawal period would be dependent on commercial circumstances, and that the department would extend it in case of necessity.
